LOCAL NOTES.

A slight frost Sunday night.

Beaver school opens Monday Oct., 7.

H. A. Montgomery of Englewood was on our streets Wednesday.

There are yet several good schools in the county that have not been taken.

Miss Nora Quinn is visiting this week at Mr. McMullen's on the Cimarron.

S. B. Weir orders the HERALD sent to his daughter Miss Ada, who is with her grandparents at Betherville, Iowa.

Mrs. Eugene Groves will commence a term of school Monday in the Elmwood district twelve miles south of town.

R. W. Griggs, S. W. Miles and R. M. Painter attorneys of Meade county, Ks., are here professionally this week.

I. S. Drummond and family moved yesterday to Peter Ryerson's farm west of town where they will remain until spring.

Mrs. A. M. Fenner is expected home Saturday after an absence of four months visiting relatives and friends in New York state.

Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery of Preston attended the reunion at this place last week and were the guests of the HERALD family.

A goodly portion of our county was blessed with a heavy rainfall last Saturday and we have enjoyed delightfully cool weather since.

John Fulkerson made final proof on his claim last Saturday. He was accompanied by G. H. Merchant and C. P. Nell as witnesses.

All interested in the organization of a Sons of Veterans camp at this place are requested to meet at the G. A. R. hall on Saturday Oct. 5th.

Several parties from this county who are interested in the growth of alfalfa, and irrigation will attend the Garden City Fair Oct. 2, 3, 4, and 5.

County Treasurer Williamson left for his ranch on the Hackberry last Sunday and will be absent about one week.
Mrs. Nellie Groves has charge of the office during his absence.

It is now definitely settled that the fall term of the District Court will be held at Beaver on Oct. 16, 1895. The list of both Grand and Petit jurors will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Miss Flo Threlkeld of Optima came in to-day for the purpose of taking the examination for a teacher's certificate.
She is accompanied on her trip by her brother-in-law W. I. Brown.

Rev. Munsell has returned from Presbytery and much to the delight of our people will remain here another year.
He visited his parents at Chickasha, I. T., and friends at Wichita, Ks. during his absence.

Judge and Mrs. A. G. C. Brier had born to them a handsome girl last Saturday. It is their first. They are receiving congratulations from their many friends all over the territory.—State Capital.

There will be services at the Presbyterian church at 11 A. M., also 8 P. M. on next Sabbath, after which time there will probably be preaching in the evening only, as Rev. Munsell will hereafter fill two appointments in the county on the Sabbath.

Co. Supt. Blanchard informs us that in publishing the list of applicants for teachers' certificates and the grade received, that a mistake was made in regard to Miss Amelia Stanley who received a good 2nd grade certificate instead of a 3rd grade as was published.

THE REUNION.

The seventh annual reunion of the old soldiers held at Beaver last Thursday and Friday was a grand success. A large crowd was in attendance both days and seemed to enjoy being here although the weather was quite warm and the wind blew continuously. A large dining hall had been prepared where three good, substantial meals were served free to everyone each day, and much has been said in praise of the W. R. C. who so successfully managed this important part of the entertainment. The court room was nicely decorated and comfortably seated where the crowd assembled twice a day to listen to rousing speeches and war experiences from the old soldiers and fine songs from our best singers.
A grand ball was given each evening which was attended largely by the young folks, while exciting camp fires were held for the amusement of those who did not feel disposed to dance.
The Englewood Drum Corps and the Beaver Band furnished excellent music which was enjoyed by all. A good feeling prevailed throughout, and when at last the time came for parting all expressed a desire to meet again at the Annual District Reunion which will be held at Beaver in 1896.

From The Liberal News:

A large portion of the credit for the success of the reunion is accorded to the Beaver band which was present during the entire time. This is a splendid organization, composed of both ladies and gentlemen—the best in the country—and they fully attested their ability as musicians in the excellent music furnished to our citizens and visitors. The band has fifteen instruments and the performers know how to use them. We all hope to be again favored with a visit from the Beaver band in the near future.

The agricultural display at the reunion last week was certainly a splendid showing for this part of the country.
Stevens and Seward counties, and Beaver county Oklahoma were represented in a manner at once gratifying to all and the array of products would do credit to any country on earth. The corn and apples and peaches were the most admired, while the melons and onions and potatoes and squashes and wheat and oats and broomcorn and cabbage and beets were objects of much interest. The display was a source of profound satisfaction to every citizen of this section who has lived through the vicissitudes of the past 10 years and who expects to continue to make his home here.

The News deplors the necessity of wasting words of commiseration to our brothers and sisters of Beaver who were doubtless stricken with the same affliction that played the mischief with so many people here. We are sorry that our pleasant associations had to be so rudely and sickeningly ended, and while we extend sympathy to the stricken ones we ask that they do not judge us too harshly in the matter.

Late Literary News.

Fiction and travel are the strong points of the September Comopolitan, which by the way, illustrates better than any previous number the perfection of its plant for printing a magazine of the highest class. Conan Doyle, H. H. Boyesen, and Clark Russell are among the story-tellers. A well-known New York lawyer relates the story of "A Famous Crime"—the murder of Dr. Parkman by Professor Webster. A delightful sketch of "An English Country House-party" is from the pen of Nina Bayne Smith—the house at which she visited being no less than the historic Abbotston, still occupied by the direct descendants of Sir Walter Scott.
"The Realm of the Wonderful" is descriptive of the strange forms of life discovered by science in the ocean depths, and is superbly illustrated in a surprising and marvelous way by the author, who is a member of the Smithsonian staff. An article on Cuba is timely. Without boring the reader with unnecessary description of the famous yachts now so much talked of, The Comopolitan presents four full-page illustrations showing these noted boats. Thomas Moran again contributes a series of the exquisite landscapes of western scenery, twelve in number, illustrating an article by Col. John A. Cockerill, on "Modern Utah." And it may be said that no more beautifully illustrated number of The Comopolitan has ever been given the public.

Every man with 50 head of cattle or upward should advertise his brand in this paper, and thus within a month, perhaps, regain stock which has been missing for weeks, and which he has given up as lost. Our circulation throughout this section is wide and steadily increasing, and your brand inserted in these columns will become fa-

GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

TO THE EAST.

BEST DINING CAR SERVICE IN THE WORLD.
The Rock Island is foremost in adopting any advantage calculated to improve speed and give that luxury, safety and comfort that popular patronage demands. Its equipment is thoroughly complete with vestibuled trains, magnificent dining cars, sleepers and chair coaches, all the most elegant, and of recently improved patterns.
Faithful and capable management and polite, honest service from employees are important items. They are a double duty—to the Company and to travelers—and it is sometimes a task difficult of accomplishment. Passengers on this line will find little cause for complaints on that ground.

REMEMBER
The Great Rock Island Route runs all regular trains to Englewood suburban station, close to World's Fair grounds, and you can save time and trouble by getting off at that point and avoid the crowd in the city.
